“ Elizabeth Larson was my teacher in 7th grade at SIE. I have so many memories of her and how much she taught us every day. Essie, I had been trying to get a hold of your mom. Now I know why I couldn't, because I just saw this. I am so sorry Essie. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of the family. ❤️ 🦋

“ Elizabeth Larson was one of the most Christian, kind, loving, intelligent and authentic persons that I have ever met. I remember her greeting my family warmly and lovingly welcoming us at the annual Breakfast With Santa Event at church. I remember her always arriving early at the SAHSG meetings to make sure the group had freshly brewed coffee and treats. I remember her proudly pushing her beloved granddaughter, Sophia, in the stroller and marching in the Teaneck Fourth of July Parade. I remember her sharing her Life's Story and offering me the opportunity to join the Creative Writing Group that she taught in her home. Elizabeth Larson demonstrated Christ like love to me personally. I am going to miss her!

Me. Elizabeth, was an amazing person. Taught my children religion and was there for me when I was injured in a car accident. She will forever be in my heart.

“ On Sundays for the past 6 years, I sat behind Elizabeth in the church choir. At the sign of peace, she always hugged me and told me she loved me. I will miss her kind heart more than I can say.

“ Elizabeth Larson’s love for her neighbors had no boundaries. She was one of the founding members of the Saint Anastasia Haiti Support Group (SAHSG), a non-profit organization that works in solidarity with the people in Haiti. Elizabeth has worked tirelessly to ensure the group’s success. Every second Saturday of the month, Elizabeth would be the first to arrive for the 9:30AM meeting, ensuring there were coffee and snack while tables and chairs were set for the members. She created our Logo, wrote announcements for the bulletin, sponsored a child in the Cardinal Stepinac Orphanage and has contributed to the development of SAKALA, an organization that helps the most disenfranchised youth in Haiti. Furthermore, her presence could be felt, through her writings, and the words of support she always had for those traveling to visit her less fortunate brothers and sisters, as she called them, in Haiti. Elizabeth was a strong force in the group, made lasting contributions to its development and will be forever remembered. We’ll miss you Liz but your legacy amongst us will live forever.
MAY YOUR SOUL REST IN PEACE!

“ Please turn back the calendar to 1973. I first met Raoul and Elizabeth on their sailboat RESTLESS in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Our two sailboats sailed the Caribbean, then across the Atlantic to the Azores, and to Plymouth, England. Our friendship continued as we shared our lives first by letters, then emails and Facebook. Elizabeth's interest in Peru inspired me to also travel there many times. We hoped to meet up in Peru but the timing did not work out.

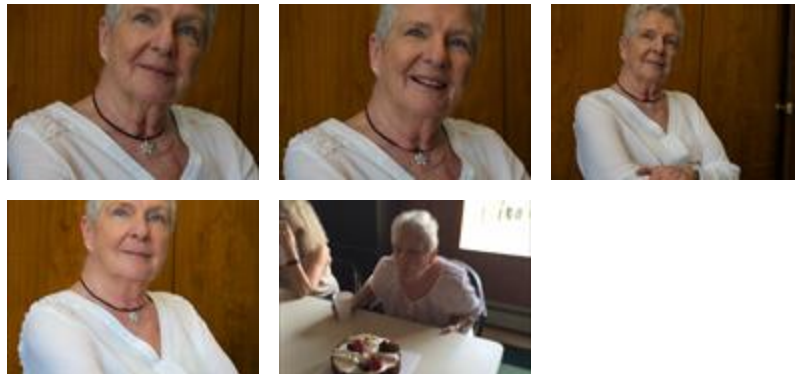

Now is is 2018 and a dear, vivacious, kind, and wonderful friend has departed to join the Lord and her beloved Raoul. Elizabeth enriched all our lives.
