“ Grandma. Though we didn't live nearby I always knew that we all lived close to your heart. Always a visit, phone call to us or mom and dad, and your cards. Oh how I will miss your cards. They were never just cards for all and every occasions, but a special note or wish of how you cared for us and were proud of us, something funny or cut out of something funny from a magazine or newspaper. I thank you for all the fond memories, of backyard parties, pool time, Thor, hotdogs, cots, hats, blankets, potholders, crosswords, “kiss me I'm Irish”, church, vegetables, sandwiches, crocheting with you and the Yankees. Your smile and wonderful, wonderful contagious laugh will be missed. I love you with all my heart, do and will always miss you! To my family, I love you so much and I'm so sorry.##imported-begin##Your Grandaughter##imported-end##
