

Enrique D. Sarubbi

April 22, 2022

Enrique Dominguez Sarubbi was born on January 8, 1960 to the late Asucion Antonia Dominguez and Enrico Edgardo Sarubbi in the Dominican Republic. Enrique attended school and spent much of his youth working to support his mother and to help raise his younger brother. He would eventually father two children in the Dominican Republic, Rosely and Ricky Sarubbi. In 1983, Enrique came to the United States to build a better life for himself.

Enrique was a hardworking man who held numerous jobs. In 1986, his life changed forever, when he met the love of his life and future wife Xiomara Rodriguez. God graced their union with three beautiful children Stephaney, Isamar and Amaury Sarubbi. Enrique was a dedicated husband and father. He had a stern, yet playful approach to fatherhood. His parenting instilled strong values in his children, but ensured they knew he loved them.

In the workplace, Enrique loved assisting others and using machinery. He really enjoyed his most recent job at Lorenzo Food Corporation. His work and the people with whom he worked made the overnight shift enjoyable.

Enrique's greatest passion was spending time with family. He was the life of gatherings and would always be seen dancing, singing and sharing love with everyone. However, his newest found passion was being with his grandsons Calvin and Logan Barber. It provided new meaning and purpose to his life.

After completing the overnight shift, he would not rest until he was able to see his grandsons off to school.

Enrique will be sorely missed by his devoted wife Xiomara, daughters Rosely Sarubbi, Stephaney Sarubbi and Isamar Sarubbi; sons Ricky Sarubbi and Amaury Sarubbi; grandsons Calvin Barber and Logan Barber; father Enrico Edgardo Sarubbi; and sister Myra Brea. He is also survived by countless cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, extended family and colleagues.

Enrique was predeceased by his mother Asucion Antonia Dominguez, his brothers, Cuchi Dominguez and Amaury Dominguez and his beloved dog Reina Sarubbi.
