“ Sending our prayers and condolences to the family of Nanay Yaying. We believe that Nanay Yaying is with our Almighty God in a far better place than where we are right now. Let the love she shared to all us not only remain but be felt and remembered.

May God continuously bless her family.

“ Nanay yaying is like a second nanay to me it breaks my heart to know that I won't hear her voice at mga payo niya, her laughter that is such a sweet sound. She had been a very good friend to my mom and which i am very grateful. I shall miss her and everytime i will lift my coffee mug i will send her my sweetest smile and a prayer. We love you Nanay Yaying and may you rest in peace. By the way give my Tang a big smile too! Caluguran da cayu !

“Inay will always be in my heart. I can never forget her kindness, understanding and generosity. I remember when I went home with Inay to the Philippines in 2012 for a family visit, as we decided to bring her home while she still can. She was so generous to everyone, so much that when her personal ‘pasalubong’ ran out, she would take even my own personal things like lipsticks.

During my stay here, I saw her agony. I became her personal aid and secretary and I am just so glad that I was able to serve her even for just a short time. When she was admitted in Holy Name Hospital and Woodcrest, she would call me “antukin” (sleepyhead) because she often saw me sleeping whenever I stayed with her.

I cannot forget the word “sakit” because it’s the only word which Dr. Liu could tell whenever he saw her in pain. This is what I recalled when Nita and I brought Inay to podiatrist for the treatment of her in-grown nails, when she was injected with big needle and her toe bled a lot, Nita and I were kidding her ‘Inay sakit’ and she just smiled.

I would like to retain that memory of that smile ... but I pray and hope I could...

I love you Inay and thank you for all that you are!

“ Dear Inay,

I'm not really good with words and putting my thoughts together, but this is the best I can do. Thank you for caring for me, protecting me, and treating me like I was your daughter since I was just a baby. Like the rest of the family, we all miss your presences and the enjoyment you brought us. But it's okay because I know you're happy up there in Heaven with God watching over us. Thank you again.

Love,
Janelle.
