“ My deepest condolences to the Vinson family. My heart is heavy and burden now, by just now hearing of Eva's passing. Eva B. Vinson you were the sweetest and dearest fraternal sister and friend a person can know. In just know finding out, my thoughts immediately went back to the many events and affairs I spent with you and Al years ago, enjoying ourselves and giving back!! Great memories and precious times. May you rest in peace now and may your eloquent spirt and kindness stay in our hearts,...you are truly miss. Tony

“ Deacon Eva was such a beautiful and exceptional person. She will forever live in my memories...On Sundays, I looked forward to seeing her on her Welcome and Hospitality post, just outside the community door at church, welcoming everyone who entered with her warm, loving, and infectious smile. Sometimes she would greet me with a smile and a warm embrace. I will miss her.

To her loving husband and family: Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for her death. I pray that God will comfort you with serenity and peace and all that you need during this difficult time.
