“ Most of my childhood memories are with you, Aunt Flo. When I was a little girl I spent a lot of time at Aunt Flo's. I remember Debbie & Rosemarie always playing dress up with me and doing my hair and makeup. I remember when I was pregnant with my 3rd and I was coming to your house for a barbeque and I started going into labor earlier that morning and I came to your house anyway and you said not to worry because you would have the boiling water ready. You always made me laugh and would always tell me stories of when we were all younger. We always had a lot of fun at your house. You will be greatly missed - rest in the sweetest peace Aunt Flo. Love, Nicole xoxoxo
