“ Frances was the first four friends whom I met when I arrived in New York in 1968. We became room mates and, with the other two friends/room mates, we embarked on a fun friendship with unforgettable memories. I miss you, Frances, but thankfully, the memories remain.
With much love,
Inge

“ Frances has known me, before I was aware of myself. Growing up with her as "another mother" and playing with Matthew and my brother, and their other friends, was a fun and great thing. I also dont think I ever met a woman more appreciative, of a hair cut n color.
My thoughts are with all who got a chance to know Frances, and of course to her great son and daughter in law, Matt and Tina. You are both amazing people. ?

“ Frances always made me feel like I was brightening her day just by saying hello to her and asking her how she was doing. I really enjoyed shopping for her on Christmas. She always seemed so happy with my gifts and made sure to tell me how much she appreciated and loved them. I always felt a closeness to her even though I only knew her during her last years. She will be greatly missed.
