“ Cathy...I don't even know where to start. These are sad days with Buddy gone. There are so many memories for so many years. Most of our lives for many of us. Teaneck which has been a constant for us over the years, Seaside, visits to Boston in college, and so much more. I wish I could be there for you so we could reminisce together. One of these days when this craziness is all over we'll get together and have a few good laughs remembering those times.
