“ To Aunt Beulah and Pele, I just wanted you both to know my family and I are with you in spirit through this difficult time. We love and miss Uncle Frank dearly. Uncle Frank will always be remembered as kind and loving soul. I wish I could have been there for the service. You both take care and we love you both dearly.

With Love

“ Uncle Frank,

There has never been anyone in my life who has truly operated, delivered and is more deserving of the title “Uncle”. Your quiet yet strong, determined spirit radiated within every environment you encountered. Many were not aware of your ability to profoundly observe things. I will always remember and love your spirit. So now that you’re with the Lord, I won’t say good bye; but rather, see you later! Amen!

Your neice “Punkin”.

Unfortunately, I am unable to attend your home going services with the family on Thursday to CELEBRATE your life and many many years of friendship were share. I knew I was extra special to you when you left Teaneck with health concerns to come to Bermuda Run with Beulah, to spend your last vacation with me and Deanie. Thank you. I will never forget. Will see you in the morning.
