“ Dear Mary, Linda, John and Dabney On behalf of Josephine, Oliver and Cordelia, please accept our condolences on Frank's passing. I only met him a very few of times, but I have a memory of a large character. I note he is being buried next to your Mother. I recall Beryl displaying Frank and Brenda's wedding photo: the handsome young soldier returning home with his English bride, together embarking on a new adventure together. It was one of her favourite photographs. Frank died on Sunday, the 20th, which was my birthday. It will mean I will have cause to remember him and my American cousins every year. Once again please accept our condolences. I hope Friday passes smoothly: our thoughts and prayers will be with you. Love from Peter, Josephine, Oliver and Cordelia##imported-begin##Peter Witton##imported-end##
