“ *For the last 12 years my family was lucky enough to have Fred as our neighbor. Our sons 12,10 and 5 have grown up talking about Fred, their really cool older neighbor who still worked, read a lot of news papers, always wore a bow tie and had 2 cars! Fred taught our sons the importance of helping out a neighbor by simply bringing his papers to the door and occasionally watering his flowers. We all looked forward to his post cards about his amazing trips with his family. Our 5 year olds bedroom window faces his house and every night he looks out his window and says good night Fred sleep tight don't let the bed bugs bite! We will miss you!
