“ Fred,

I feel so fortunate to have called you a friend. Though our friendship was only a few short years, you had a lasting impact on my life. You were quick to love and slow to judge. I admired your patience, open mind, integrity, and the sense of duty you demonstrated to your country.

You showed me what it means to live and age with intention: to stay curious, to never stop finding beauty in the world around you, and to approach the years ahead with purpose and heart. I often think about what it means to grow older and continue to build a full and meaningful life; you were my role model for how to do that with grace, honesty, and dignity.

I wish I'd found the right moment to tell you all of this while you were still here. I came close a few times, but the words never felt quite right & I didn't want to sound like was saying goodbye. I hope you somehow know.

Thank you, Fred — for your kindness, your stories, your steady wisdom, and your friendship. I will miss you deeply.

“ Fred was a wonderful caring neighbor. I will miss his regular holiday texts, always reminding me of the true meaning of the day. I'll never sit outside on a sunny afternoon without thinking of him sunbathing - completely unbothered and without a shred of modesty. My deepest condolences to Fred's family and friends.

“ Fred was a dear close friend. A genuine, faithful and kind-hearted man whose friendship meant a lot to me. I had the privilege of getting to know him over many years and I valued his engaging conversations over regular phone calls and visits. He was a man of integrity and advocacy. I will always cherish the memories of him and his partner who became extended family.

“ Oh Fred, you were an amazing man and will be greatly missed! Walkkill Terrace won't be the same without you. We had a lot in common even with our age gap and I loved getting to know you. I will think of you whenever I leave my house and every election that was so important to you. My thoughts and prayers to his family. I am here if you need anything.

“ You have always been there to love and protect me. You've always been a great support even though we didn't always see eye to eye but yet always there. The last few years have been fun going on cruises, casinos, Niagara Falls, etc. The last few days, many people have told me what a good man you were and how kind and caring. I will miss you deeply. Glad you will be reunited with John and say hi to mom and dad. Be happy and peaceful. No more worries. I Will always love you. Rest in peace. 🌈❤️🌹☀️❤️

I'm so sorry to learn of Fred's passing. Fred was one of our crew who used to hang out at the pool in the YMCA. He was a soft spoken intelligent guy who actively engaged in conversation with his pals. I will be playing Taps for him at his interment at the George Washington Memorial Cemetery in Paramus tomorrow. May God's blessing be with him and Fred's family.
