“ Hello Nancy..I just was told that your dad passed away this May. I am so sorry about your loss and also so sorry I did not know. I don't know if you remember me but I worked at Howmedica and worked on the day shift. My very best regards. Tony Riviuccio##imported-begin##Tonny Riviuccio##imported-end##

“ Dear Fran and family I was shocked and saddened to hear of the passing of my cousin. What a terrible tragedy! I must apologize that I will not be able to join you at the memorial service. I had surgery last evening and I'm not able to attend. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Love. Linda##imported-begin##Linda Gnecco##imported-end##

“ Nancy and Family: John and I were so very sad to hear of your loss. I remember our days at Fairfield and all the parents weekends and dinners out that we had! I remember your father's talent for woodworking and the projects he would work on and the smile in his eyes when he looked at you. You and your mom, Mike and the kids, are in our thoughts and prayers. Love-Susan###imported-begin###Susan Erwin###imported-end##

“ My Dear Fran and Family, It was with sadness that I learned from Sr. Adrienne and Paula of your husband's passing. Please know that my special prayers are with all of you during this very difficult time. Fran, you and I had talked together during our Cornerstone reception this year, and I have not had a chance to see you since. I am going away this week, but will get in touch with you when I return. Unfortunately, I will not be here to attend the service for Fred, but know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Peace and Blessings, Mildred Smith###imported-begin###Mildred Smith###imported-end##
