“ George Chambers was an absolute gentleman, in every sense of the word. My conversations with George, on the phone or face-to-face, were always delightful. When discussing his health, we always ended the call on a positive note. He loved his family and adored his sweet Cheryl. I was always impressed with his attentiveness to his mother-in-law (my Aunt Marge). He was a gracious host. He was well read. He could cover the scope on most any topic of discussion and he was a good listener. George will be missed. He was a special person. I am thankful to have known this wonderful man. My prayers are for comfort for Cheryl, his children, his grandchildren, and all who knew and loved him. And, may you find solace in the sweet memories of the path this man walked. With love and my deepest sympathy, Renee Watts Spivey
