

George J Kruckmeyer

March 11, 1943 - October 3, 2021

George J. Kruckmeyer, 78, of Belvidere, NJ passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 3, 2021.

George devoted his time as Terminal Operations Manager for Apex Oil in Baltimore, MD. He started his career in the oil and energy industry by working on the pipeline at Rollins Terminal, Bayonne, NJ in the early 70s. He quickly moved up and became Operations Manager for Tennaco Oil and held multiple positions along the way, including: Vice President of Environmental Compliance. In 2006, George transferred to Stratus Petroleum and ended his career at Apex oil Company in the Baltimore terminal.

His legacy will be his development of the rail car inventory tracking system, now used in all terminals throughout the country. Apex Oil now uses this successful system as standard operational procedure. Lovingly known as "George's Book of Knowledge", George's vast knowledge of terminal operations lead the way of him becoming a mentor and friend of so many, including the corporate offices of the Midwest. George retired August of 2020, due to the Covid-19 Pandemic. His retirement still came 8 years later than expected because of how much the company valued his mentorship and vast knowledge.

George was a proud member of a motorcycle club on the 60s called the Romans. He majored in psychology at Rutgers University. He was a lover of anything mathematical and always preached "get your knowns on one side and your unknowns on another." George loved Sci-Fi movies and shows with two of his favorites being Star trek and Dr. Who.

George was often sought after for his advice. Something he always said was, "do what ever you want to do in life, just know what you're getting into." His favorite saying was an evolutionary idea Freud relied on: ontogeny recapitulates phylogeny.

George is survived by his dear children; Kim Kruckmeyer, George Kruckmeyer, and Daughter-in-law Marina Kruckmeyer, sister; Marlene Porkjy, loving grandchildren; Zoe Kruckmeyer, Rosina Huddleston, and AJ Huddleston.

He is predeceased by his beloved wife; Carolyn Kruckmeyer and sisters; Linda Borngesser, Phyllis Poluch, and Kathy Robinson.

Family and friends are invited to the visitation on Friday, October 8, 2021 form 4-8pm at Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Road, Teaneck, NJ 07666.

A memorial donation in his name can be made to Grace Health Care, 105 Fieldcrest Ave, Suite 402, Edison, NJ 0887-3628.

“ George invited me to move in with him in his Hoboken apartment in 1968 because of family issues I had at home. This was a couple of months prior to my wedding. I greatly appreciated his generosity especially since I didn't know him very well at the time. He only knew me as the guy who was dating his sister Marlene. We had a great relationship and really got to know each other prior to becoming family members. He was a great guy. Rest in peace George.

“ My favorite memories of George and Carol were my trips to their cabin in NY ! My favorite was the first visit when the cabin was a work in progress. We were all there George, Carol, our sister Linda her husband Paul and of course John and I. We were really roughing it ! We all had to bring our own water for washing up. It was the best family get together. Nights were chilly and we all huddled around the campfire laughing ,talking and maybe a little drinking! That cabin was my favorite get away for years to come,
