“ Over the past year at the same table at the Hackensack Senior Center, we were intrigued by the stories that George and Lillian shared about their lives. George proudly told us about when he was in the military and about his brothers. One friend always greeted George with “ another Day, George, another Day”. We wished there was just another day. He will be missed and we feel honored to have know George and send our love and sympathy to our dear friends Lillian and Barbara. Eternally grateful to have know such a fine man.
