“ I had the extreme pleasure of meeting Gigi at HNH exercise class. I felt we were kindred spirits from our first meeting. Gigi had a spunky, witty personality and a very loving soul. We shared many stories and laughs at our Tuesday and Thursday evening gatherings. She comforted me during a time of care taking/passing for my father with Alzheimer's disease. I am so truly sad that she is no longer with us but know she joins her beloved Theo. May she rest well and peacefully. I'll miss hearing her say "hi babe" and making me chuckle and smile. We lost a great one....you were one great lady! I will keep you in my heart, always.
I love you Gigi

“ I am sadden by the news of Gigi's passing. I found out just today. I've known her since Vance & I were in Kindergarten together. She was a good friend to my mom, working Bingo at St.A's, PTA meetings, or hanging out in Murphy's yard. Your mom was a Special woman. I bet our mom's are up in Heaven together playing a rousing game of Bingo! Welcome to Our Club. It's not a club anyone wants to join. I'm so sorry u had to join the club. Ur in my thoughts & your mom is in my prayers. No more pain & suffering, only Peace. Sorry for your loss!! Veronica Schroeder & Family.
