“ So sad to hear about Gloria. It just seems like she was always there for everyone, the rock of the family. God just said it is time for her to come home, to leave all the pain and struggles of life behind. She can see all her friends and family and rejoice with them. RIP

“ Gloria was a beautiful woman with a gracious heart. She was the type of mother that always worried about her children and beloved ones around her. She would do everything she could to make you feel comfortable and loved.

I will miss my mother-in-law for always and I will remember her as a very special person. She was not only a mom to Joann and Rich, but to me also. Her spirit is at rest with her husband Frank, her sister, Uncle Frank and my father. She will have plenty of love around her in heaven. Until our spirits are together again. Love you and miss you Mom.
