“Poppy shaped my life so much and showed me compassion and love through his love for my mom, his wife, his grandchildren and all of his loved ones. I remember when I worried about whether or not I was deserving of certain things my mom (Peachie) would always use Poppy as an example of how a parent should treat their children. Saying things like “my dad would know when I needed him and he would support me even if it was just helping me to get my hair done every so often.” I knew from a young age that my Poppy was an amazing man and not only shaped my life but all the others around him. He was a role model to all. He always let me be who I needed to be, even if it meant bailing on the long shopping trips with my mom and sister and just sitting at home together. Him and I would just enjoy the peace and each others company. I want you to know Poppy that everytime I sit and take a break from the chaos, I see you next to me, relaxing and enjoying the peace alongside me. I love you with all my heart. Forever and always, you are my Poppy
