

Gregory B. Warner

March 10, 2019

On Sunday, March 10, 2019 God united Gregory with his mother and father in heaven. Greg was born in New York City to Mr. Ralph and Mrs. Maudie (Maxine) Warner on December 24, 1958. He was their only child. Greg went to Thomas Jefferson Middle School in his adolescent years, thereafter he attended and graduated from Teaneck High School in 1976. Gregory then met and later married Christine Rembert in NYC, from this union two sons were born; Shai Gregory Warner and Sean Bernard Warner, both of Teaneck, NJ, as well as another gift, his stepdaughter Teneka Keiana McQueen, of Las Vegas, Nevada. Gregory and Christine remained married until his transition for 29 years, however were together for 35 years. Family was of the highest importance to him and extended outside of his immediate family. Greg was a very sociable and charismatic person, with friends from all walks of life.

Gregory's career as a professional truck driver spanned over two decades, and he remained one until his passing. As an avid sports enthusiast, Gregory was very passionate about auto racing and motorsports throughout his youth and remained one until the end. He loved Formula 1, NHRA, Nascar and was active in go-karting, motorcycles, and car racing throughout his life. He and his family attended races across the country as spectators and in support of Greg's passion for driving/racing. Gregory served in the U. S. Army and was Honorably Discharged in 1990.

Gregory was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. Ralph and Mrs. Maudie (Maxine) Warner, as well as his aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Gregory leaves to cherish his memories his wife Christine, his two sons Shai and Sean, daughter Teneka (son-in-law, Michael McQueen), as well as his grandchildren; Shyla Warner, Elijah McQueen, Amber McQueen, and Isabella McQueen, godmother Joanna Mc Bride, godsister Joan Cook, cousins Carol, Valerie, Cheryl, Benita, Clarice, and Maurice, as well as his nieces, nephews, brothers and sisters-in-law, and countless friends across the country.
