Guy Anthony Blehl, 61, of Montclair, NJ, went home to the Lord on July 27, 2016 surrounded by his loving family after a long and courageous battle with pancreatic cancer.

He was born to Thomas and Elinor Blehl on December 15, 1954 in Oak Park, Illinois. After leaving Illinois, Guy grew up in Oradell, NJ. Early in life, he discovered his talent and passion for the Automotive Transmission world. He was founder and chief operator for 37 years of Gold Seal Transmissions, one of NJ's largest transmission facilities located in Upper Saddle River, NJ. Guy's son, Cort, will carry on his Gold Seal legacy.

“ As I was perusing "The Record" online, I came across Guy's obituary and it opened up a flood of memories from a very long time ago... circa 1964! Guy was about 10 years old; myself and 2 other girlfriends were about 14 years old. As it be, the Blehl clan lived behind my friend's house necessitating a walk by her house whenever they were on their way home.

Whenever Guy would pass, there was always an exchange of words. I remember Guy as being very quick-witted which always left us laughing and giggling. I especially remember a very fun-filled snowball fight... us 3 girls vs. Guy. Guy held his own very well despite the odds.

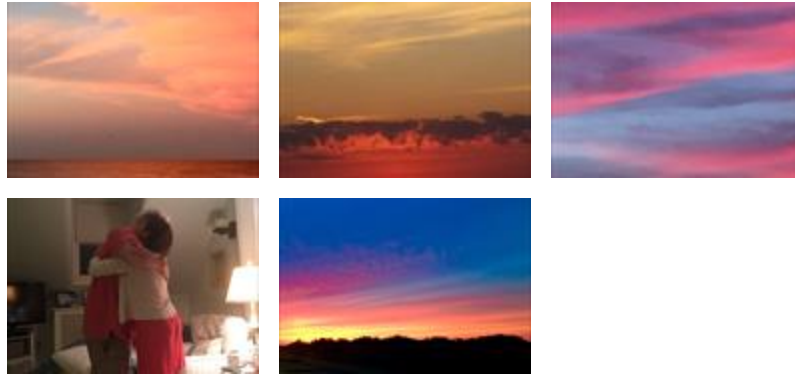

My sincere condolences to the Blehl family. Even tho I cannot say that I knew Guy well, his passing saddens me. However, please know that even at the age of 10, Guy was leaving lasting impressions on those who knew him. The thought of Guy will always bring a smile to my face.

Peace and love,

“ To our sweet Sally and her family during this time of incredible sadness. Our hearts break with your broken hearts. We will miss Guy and his goodness, sense of faith, hope and love. His quiet sense of humor, his loyal friendship. His bear hugs. His barbecue bashes, his kindness. That smile! Guy was simply a good man. Anyone lucky enough to have known him knew his heart, and was better for knowing this gentle, handsome man. He was a gift to us all. His love and devotion to his family was inspiring. Guy is surely in Heaven.

I just wish Heaven was on earth. God bless all of you who grieve. May grace surround you as you try to deal with his loss. May your inner peace eventually help the pain lessen. May God and family and friends wrap their arms around you. May your tears flow, and loving memories appear.

Dear Guy, we will miss you forever. We know that if God hadn't called for you, you would be with us. Thank you for loving us.

Please look after Sally, your children & grandchildren.

May you rest in peace after a life well and fully lived. ♥

“ Heartbroken upon the loss of my wonderful and amazing friend Guy. Words cannot express how deeply loved he was or how greatly he will be missed by all of us who were blessed to have had the devotion, affection and joy he gave to his family, friends and neighbors.

Guy was a "Giver" in the truest sense of the word. He possessed the rare combination of a strong, courageous and ethical character, with intellect, ingenuity and a tender, giving heart. My Love and Prayers are with my beautiful friend Sally, who braved the fight of his life with him, as his loving devoted wife and true companion~on a daily basis, beside him every step of the way, without fail. My Deepest sympathy and love is with her as well as their family, children and grandchildren.

I am sharing a photo I took of Guy and his sweet Sally at Christmas Eve Mass in

Saint Patrick's Cathedral last year~knowing that he will live in all of our hearts and memories forever. God Bless You and Keep You GuyBear~

Until we meet again...
