“ I had the honor to have spent many years next to Harold on our boat dock at cove marina in ct. We spent many hours talking and sharing stories and I found him to be one of the most interesting and down to earth people I have ever met. I am so honored to have known Harold.##imported-begin##Larry Chapman##imported-end##

“ I knew Harold because not only was i a boater with a boat at Cove Marina but I worked on the dock staff there in the late 90's until 2003. Every day that I worked we would do a "Bed Check" to see what slips were occupied and which were empty. It was always nice to talk to Harold and be greeted by his beloved dog. He was such a gracious soul. He will be missed at the Cove.##imported-begin##Claudia Bennett##imported-end##

“ I remember Harold from my early childhood. My youngest daughter is a grad student in architecture, which is the reason I looked up Harold (also looked up a former classmate of mine from Canarsie High School - who became a well known architect). I didn't expect to see his name mentioned through a funeral home. I have wonderful memories of Harold and the long-haired German Shepard that pulled me on roller skates through the streets by his home - thought I was going to die when he wouldn't stop going downhill! (loved the travel posters in the den - so wished that I could visit those places). Remember being on the boat (twin diesel, I think), and my parents getting sea sick! Harold used to give my father a ride in each new Porsche car he bought (my dad could barely get in and out! - so not our old Chevy). I knew Harold through Lena (my mom's friend). Fond memories - Harold was the most successful person I knew growing up (I'm 1st generation - no siblings, etc.) Wonderful memories of a wonderful man. Somehow weird that I happened to look him up at this time. Anyway - just wanted to mention Harold, as I knew him, growing up. Lovely, talented man. My sincerest sympathy to all - Lucy##imported-begin##Lucy##imported-end##

“ John 16:33 "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." Mr. Robertson was a wonderful man. I worked with him at Rudin Management Co. He shared his wisdom, his boating stories and loved his shepherd. He was literally an officer and a gentleman in every sense and I truly appreciated his time and conversation everytime we had an opportunity to talk. He will be greatly missed, but I know he's driving his Porsche on that Heavenly Highway...at peace. May God continue to bless and strengthen his family. ~ Lois Towe###imported-begin##Lois Towe###imported-end##

“ Harold was an amazing man, marching down B dock of Cove Marina, taking out his 42 Bertram with ease and authority, sometimes on his own. The first year that I met him, I didn't know his nickname, and one day friends of his had come to his boat, but Harold had gone to the ship's store. They asked me where "Buck" was and I said "who?" Well, they told me the story of his cavalry days but asked me not to divulge the source of the information. Of course the next day when Harold passed by I said "Hi, Buck!" He as flummoxed by the greeting, asking me where I heard that, but then relaxed and we laughed about his being thrown by his horse. You meet a lot of people in boating, but Harold was one of the most unforgettable and endearing. We will miss him. Bob and Ann Hagelstein###imported-begin###Robert Hagelstein###imported-end##

“ Our condolences go out to Harold's family. He was a fine man with a big heart. We met Harold many years ago when we got in to boating. He would always send me flowers on my birthday and we were so happy when he attended our 25th anniversary just 3 years ago. We will miss seeing Harold at Norwalk Cove - his smile and his boat named Scorpio. God Bless You, Harold! Margaret & Dennis###imported-begin###Margaret & Dennis Moynihan###imported-end##
