

Hazel A McDonald

May 5, 2018

Hazel Athensa McDonald (nee Ffrench) was born in Kendal Manchester, Jamaica West Indies on February 9, 1925 to Robert Ffrench and Emily Brown. While living in Jamaica, Hazel was a hairdresser by profession. She also owned her own business, a grocery shop in Kendal that was patronized by everyone in her community. If someone purchased groceries and did not have enough money, Hazel would give them credit knowing that she may not get paid.

Hazel was a very kind, loving and giving person. She helped raise some of her sisters and brothers' children who affectionately called her Aunt Girlie. Hazel donated to many charities especially those that catered to children and first responders.

Hazel traveled to the United States in the early 60's and made permanent residence in 1968. She worked at various jobs in the Bronx and in New Jersey. In 1971 she was hired by Holy Name Hospital where she worked as a Dietary Aide until her retirement in 1992.

Hazel was a member of Covenant Life Ministries Church of Teaneck under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Keith Attles and Pastor Kimberly Attles. She adored her pastors and her church family.

Hazel had 4 sisters and 9 brothers some of whom lived in England, Cuba, Jamaica and America. All predeceased her, except for her older sister Mrs. Enid Roberts.

Hazel leaves to cherish in her memory, her daughter Kay Boothe Wilson, son-in-law Anthony Wilson, grandchildren: Stephen Walters, Jr., Joshua Wilson, Fabian Poplin, Lorraine Poplin, and great-granddaughter Nevaeh Amani Taylor. She also leaves numerous nieces, nephews, and others who affectionately called her grandma, as well as countless family and friends. Hazel lived a long and fulfilling life and died peacefully in her sleep. She will be missed dearly.
