McGregor, Hazel D. (nee Williams), of Teaneck, New Jersey, passed away and went on to be with the Lord on Monday, January 23, 2017, at Villa Marie Claire in Saddle River, New Jersey. She was a spirited 90. Hazel was born in Conway, South Carolina on September 7, 1926 to the late George Williams and Josephine Brockington. Before retiring, Hazel was an educator for the New York City Board of Education. Hazel leaves to passionately cherish her memory: a loyal son, Dr. Carlton McGregor and his wife Dr. Audrey McGregor; loving grandchildren: Gianna, Matthew, Michael and Andre; two admiring brothers: George Williams and Robert Williams; cherished nieces and nephews: Diane, Sharon, Robert, Darrell, Laverna, George, Jr., Sandra, Karen and Charles; and a host of grandnieces, grandnephews, and friends. She was predeceased by her dotting husband, Goutals McGregor and her adoring son, Realton McGregor. Family and friends are invited for a memorial visitation on Wednesday, February 1st, 2017 at Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Road, Teaneck, New Jersey, 07666, from 4pm—8pm. A memorial service will start at 7pm. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Cancer Society, www.cancer.org, or Villa Marie Claire Hospice, 12 W. Saddle River Road, Saddle River, NJ 07458. Anyone who ever met Hazel was able to experience her sharp wit and larger than life charisma. Although we will miss this and so much more about her, we are eternally grateful for these and so many more memories that we are able to treasure for posterity.
