“ I will never forget my first day at the Prosecutor's Office and Hazel came and greeted me with that beautiful smile. She was a dear friend and classy lady. Her thoughtfulness and caring ways will always be remembered.

Hazel always had Spring on her desk, beautiful flowers. In fact, I learned the names of many flowers through her.

If I was sad or troubled, I could not hide it for long with her around. She was the kind of friend who searched your eyes and did a check upon greeting, to determine if you were alright and if you weren't she knew it. She could always bring a smile to your face.

I too have missed her for a long time...Like the most beautiful of butterflies, in a cocoon, she has emerged, once more, glistening.... and renewed in the Heavenly Realm.

My condolences to the family.
