

Hedda S Haines

March 5, 2022

Haines, Hedda S. of Fort Lee and formerly of Tenafly, NJ passed away March 5, 2022. Hedda was born April 26, 1942 in Bronx, NY. She graduated from Bergenfield HS and Fairleigh Dickenson University. Working for Pan Am, Hedda enjoyed many world travel adventures with her family. After retirement she worked at MetLife Stadium and United Realty. Hedda loved to travel, enjoyed dancing and dining with her many beloved friends and spending time with her family. She is survived by her three daughters; Joyce (Jeff) Hecklau, Karyn (Mark) Norberg, and Lysa Haines; her beloved grandchildren; Ryan Luksza, Nicole and Samantha Norberg, and Vanessa and Sophia Molina and their father Nestor; her brother Ely Dennis and many other relatives and friends. She was predeceased by Paul Haines, her parents, Dorothy Goldstein (Dennis) and Benjamin Goldstein. Family and friends are invited to a celebration of life in honor of Hedda on March 10, 2022 from 2pm-4pm at Amici's Restaurant, 28 West Pleasant Avenue, Maywood NJ. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Hedda's name to a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Hedda S Haines

October 08, 2023 at 09:59 PM

“ Hedda S Haines

October 08, 2023 at 06:27 PM

“ Hedda S Haines

August 30, 2022 at 02:48 PM

“ My deepest sympathy to Hedda's family. I worked with Hedda at United and always enjoyed her company. She loved her family and spoke about her girls and grandchildren often. She will be missed. I'm so sorry.

Amy Albanese - March 09, 2022 at 03:25 PM

“ I send my deepest Sympathy to Hedda's family. Hedda was a great friend and will be missed by so many.

Hedda, keep on dancing at the forever party.

Love, Joan

Joan Groome - March 08, 2022 at 06:16 PM

MF

*My deepest condolences to you, Joyce, Karyn and Lysa, to all five of her grandchildren whom she loved so much, and to Ely as well. I did not just loose a friend but my sister. You will always be in my heart, Hedda. Until we meet again.
Love, Maria*

maria facioline - March 09, 2022 at 08:54 PM

RL

I am so saddened to hear about Hedda's passing. I would like to extend my condolences to her beautiful family, that she spoke about often. Hedda & I worked together at Metlife Stadium & enjoyed going out to restaurants in the Fort Lee area. I will miss my good friend, Hedda.

Robin Leavy - March 22, 2022 at 12:27 PM