“ To all of Helen's family, especially my friend, Don and his family, I offer my sincerest condolences. I haven't seen Mrs. Fazio (as she was always known to me) in almost 30 years, but I will never forget how kind and welcoming she was. I will never forget her generosity on one day in particular. It was the day of my road test (and not my first, I might mention) and to add to my nervousness, it turned out I had no car that day for some reason or other. Mrs. Fazio not only took me to my road test, but allowed me to use her car without a second's hesitation! I passed that day because of the support and encouragement she gave me.
She will always remain a special part of my childhood memories in River Edge. Rest in peace Mrs. Fazio.

“ To all my Fazio cousins and extended families. I want you to all know how sorry I am for your loss. Big Red was one of a kind and she had a fantastic life thanks to all of you. To think what she was able to see and experience for a girl from Union City, New Jersey. I have many many fond memories of Helen and she always had a positive attitude on life and was so kind to my children when she would see them. I am rarely in the USA but was fortunate over the years to meet up with Helen in Hawaii, Ireland, Belgium and many places on the East coast. Every time was a pleasure and every time the cards came out...I always remember hearing the words "Who didn't ante up" as Red always kept the games honest. She will be missed but she was blessed by many many strong children, a Sister who adored her and many many friends. God Bless you Big Red.
