“ George and Family: Thinking of you in your time of sorrow and loss. Your Mom had a full life and I still remember our last conversation some ten years ago, she had so many friends and memories of Teaneck. Your St. Joseph's classmates value your friendship and think of you often.##imported-begin##Charles Olson##imported-end##

“ Wagner Family-George-I was sorry to read about the passing of your mother -Helen-she was a nice person-we always enjoyed her friendship when when was with us. Unfortunately all of her "Thiede" relatives have past away, my sister and brother several years ago and now Josephine and Joanne-both used to stay in contact with your mother. Me,Iam 83 years old, had three heart operations and have to take oxygen daily and every night inorder to survive. I am more or less housebound now, as my wife has just returned home after 2 months in a Health Care Center-tring to get the right drugs to treat her dementia, Alzheimer and Diabetics. So I stay home and take care of her. I will not be able to attend the funeral but our prayers will go with her She was a nice person-May God Bless Her Dolson Conklin aka Junie###imported-begin###Dolson Conklin###imported-end##
