“ *Hello dear family.....I am very sorry to hear of Helen's passing. My fondest memory of Helen was during my first trip to New Jersey. Brian insisted we go visit his Grandmother even though it was late in the evening. I was nervous since it was my first time to meet her, but that didn't last long. Helen met us at the door with hugs and smiles and treated us to her famous tuna casserole. As I am enjoying every bite of my scrumptious meal, I look over to see her smiling from ear to ear as Brian was telling her all about his move to Colorado and each of his new adventures. He loved Grandma Helen and that night over coffee and cookies, I realized just how much she loved him. My condolences to the Kenworthy family.
