“RIP.....but WSYT”

2/10/1938 - 4/24/2019

I'm very sad to share the news that my father passed away today of natural causes. My dad was the most authentic individual I've ever met. Genuine, honest, hard working, curious, and a self starter with an adventurous spirit. He was a great husband, father, uncle, grandfather, friend, neighbor, tradesman, entrepreneur, business partner, and citizen.

Even in dying, while his physical body slowly but surely shut down on him, his strength of will and character never faltered. All he cared about til the end is that we love and take care of one another. His is a great example of how a life should be lived.

We wish for the dead that they may RIP (Rest In Peace). If you knew my dad, the word 'Rest' was definitely not in his vocabulary. He was a doer. I'm sure he'll be fixing St. Peter's gates, polyurethaning the right hand of the throne, talking printing specs with Gutenberg, chatting with Socrates about lawn maintenance, or just going out of his way on a daily basis to do whatever needs to be done. For Dad, there was no reward in 'Rest'. It was in 'Doing' where he found his happiness, satisfaction, and peace.

A link to Dad's obituary and services is below. In the meantime, please take a moment to reach out to those closest to you and ask them how their day is going. One can never chat too much about the weather, squirrels, fertilizer, family pets, grandchildren, DPW pick ups, chores, the neighbors, tools, or things that need fixed.

We will miss you Dad, more than anything. We have so many wonderful memories together though, and we're grateful for a lifetime of good years.

So until we meet again:

“REST IN PEACE.....but WILL SEND YOUR TOOLS”
