November 5, 2022

Reverend Father Jacob Chacko Oollattil, 79 years of age, son of Oonnittan Chacko and Chinnamma Oollattil transitioned peacefully from this life into eternal life on November 5th, 2022. His beloved wife was by his bedside. He was born on April 5, 1943, in Chetheckal, Ranny, Kerala, India. Jacob Achen was the seventh child of eight children, having four brothers and three sisters. Achen's father passed away when he was only three years old, leaving him to be raised by his older siblings and his mother. After graduating from college ... majoring in Engineering, Achen married Sally in 1970 and moved to the US in 1971. Once arriving to the US, Jacob Achen earned his MBA at Farleigh Dickinson University. In the 1990s, he furthered his education in theological studies at Drew Theological School.

Jacob Achen had many accomplishments throughout his life, but his proudest accomplishments included his devotion to his family and his dedication to the North American Knanaya Community. Reverend Father Jacob Chacko dedicated 30 years to the priesthood and had a lasting impact on so many members of the Knanaya community; both young and old.

Jacob Achen deeply loved his wife, children, grandchildren and his entire extended Oollattil and Malloosseril family. He was an incredible father who always looked to protect his children, even as they became adults. Achen had the kindest heart, the most beautiful voice and the warmest smile. He had the ability to connect with anyone and poured his love onto all those around him. Achen will be deeply missed by all his loved ones. May we all find a way in our hearts to continue Jacob Achen's legacy of devotion to family, kindness and mentorship to the youth.
