“ I am very sorry for your loss. Mr. Chu, as I have fondly called him for 40 years was my favorite neighbor, along with his wife, Mabel who I also miss. He always took an interest in me and my family and wanted t know what we were doing with our lives. He loved to talk to me about my career, money, goals , and life in general. Three years ago I introduced him to my finance, Felicia and he was extremely nice to her. I will miss seeing him, especially at 6am when we both used to walk to Route 4 from Gail Court or he was doing Tai Chi in the morning. He had a wonderful life and was always around wonderful people.

*With Sympathy,
Edmond Vaughn Pendleton, Esq.*
