

James Robert McCall

September 17, 2016

James Robert McCall, 36, of Newfoundland formerly of Teaneck passed away on September 17, 2016. Beloved Son of Kevin & Mary (nee Behan) McCall. Devoted brother of Kevin McCall & his wife Kristen Guimes McCall. Loving "Uncle Jimmy" to Riley, Brianna, Kali, Kate, Evan, & Katelyn. Cherished lifelong friend of Timothy Bonin and dear friend to all who knew him.

James received his M.Ed in Elementary Education from Farleigh Dickinson University. James was an educator for many different school districts including, St. Therese of Lisieux, Cresskill, Teaneck Recreation Department, Englewood Public Schools, and currently White Rock School, Jefferson Twp. As an avid collector in books his interest peaked in philosophy & religion. He was a lifelong Dallas Cowboy & Ranger fan.

James was devoted to the Blessed Mother, He left his mark on everyone who crossed his path. He was caring, compassionate, and had unconditional love towards everyone who came into his life. He truly was an "Earth Angel". He taught children & adults about faith, loyalty, & family. "Jimmy" was a beautiful happy soul who graced so many lives & left us way too soon. He was one of those people to whom God gave a little extra spirit. He will forever be missed & loved by all who knew him.

Jimmy entered this world as a miracle and then continued to do amazing things throughout his life. When I think of him it is always with that ear-to-ear smile that lit up the room-as captured in every picture in the Tribute.

Mary, Kevin and Kevin Jr. I am so sorry for your loss, he was a special guy. The memories of that smile and how he lived and loved will hopefully ease your pain. Our Prayers are with you.

My heartfelt condolences to you Kevin and your entire family. I clearly remember James as a valued employee of the Teaneck Recreation Youth Division and his contribution to our educational component. Although a short life it is apparent that it was a rich life filled with love, accomplishment and a generosity of spirit! May God wrap his protective harms around your entire family and grant you peace.
