“ Jim was a major asset to our lodge, to the state, as well as Grand Lodge. He was a tutor to our officers in the proper way to perform the ritual ceremony, so that it was done properly making it impressive to new members in their induction to the New Milford/Teaneck Elks lodge as well as the state competition. He was also a mentor to our officers helping to show them their responsibility to our lodge as well as the district . Many of the officers have gone on to positions in the district, state and the Grand Lodge. He will be sorely missed.
