“ Jimmy, I will never forgive the day we met, you and John came to my house for a party and proceeded to make fun of my dog Bridget. This began our 5 year long relationship where we would learn and grow. Thanks for teaching me how to ski (kind of) even though my first time you took me down a black diamond hill and I cursed you as I walked down that mogel filled mountain. I will always remember driving around in John’s GTO and you both banging on the dash singing songs like Night Moves, Suffragette City, & LA Women. Remember driving my Nana & Aunt Betty to Paramus Park and forgetting where we parked the “ White Ghost”, and my Aunt asking why there was paste and beer cans all over. Looking back it went so fast but living it seemed like a lifetime. We all grew up and moved onto different lives but our adventures will live in my memories forever. I pray you are in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ and will live forever with him. RIP Jimmy. Helenanne Keenan

“ I met up with Jim at Waterloo Sue’s after getting off from work. It was 9:15pm. It was, also, Jimmy’s birthday. I stayed awhile but had to get up early for work so I left. As I was leaving I whispered to put Jim’s drinks on my card. Huge mistake!! Not thinking how generous he was to others and never wanted the party to end, my credit card statement came in the mail and I almost passed out! lol! I could go on and on but I’m taking the 5th! Love you Jim Man! My sympathies to the entire Rogers family. Hal Church
