“ I was so sorry to hear about Jimmy. He was a good friend and a great guy. We did a lot of races together including some up in Cape Cod with a lot of other good friends. He was really passionate about his running, I was always jealous of his drive and determination. He was a very loyal friend. When my son was an infant, Jim used to enjoy holding him at the house and after races. I remember when he met Kathy, it was like watching someones life go from black and white to 3d color, he was so happy and in love. From now on I will run the last mile if every race for Jimmy (I'm sure he will kick me in the butt from the great beyond). You have my deepest sympathy. RJ Montouro I'm sorry that we all lost touch with each other.##imported-begin##rj montouro##imported-end##
