“ Dear Erika, Stefanie, Heide, Elizabeth, Jaime and families, Dennis and I were so sorry to hear about Jim's sudden death on Sunday. The loss of a loved one is never easy, especially when it is so unexpected. I have very fond memories of Jim from our days growing up in Monroe. He was such a kind and compassionate family man. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this sad and difficult time. Much love and peace, Denise (Bartolo) Shelle##imported-begin##Denise##imported-end##

“ Dear Ilgenfritz family: I was so saddened to hear about your loss. Jim has always been a very special part of my family and my childhood. I have very fond memories of him. He was such a kind man and he had a very generous spirit. I think of you all often as I pass the beautiful home on Elm ST. I can't remember the last time that I saw him. I remember when I went to visit in NJ and Jim already being so adept at getting around the city and "zipping" around in his little car. We are all truly blessed to have had him in our lives and what a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. I know that he will be sorely missed. God Bless. My prayers and thoughts are with you at this sad time. Love, Bettina##imported-begin##Bettina Bartol Pearch##imported-end##

“ Liebe Trauerfamilie, liebe Erika, tief betroffen mussten wir von Jims plötzlichem Tod erfahren. Nach der Zeit der Tränen und der tiefen Trauer bleibt die Erinnerung. Je schöner und voller die Erinnerung desto schwerer die Trennung. Die Erinnerung ist unsterblich und gibt uns Trost und Kraft. Wir können Euch nicht trösten, aber in Gedanken sind wir bei Euch. Unser tief empfundenenes Beileid

“ Dear Erika and family, I was saddened and shocked to hear of Jim's passing. I think you know how much I admired and enjoyed working with him. I have many memories of Jim-- helping me with my unruly tree in front of my house, my helping Jim with his Mac and Word, working on the arboretum together and many more. May he rest in peace.
