“ Dear Mrs Murphy, Jim, Kennan, Richie and Joellen, I am so sorry for the sudden loss of your husband and father. I will always remember Mr. Murphy as a one of the last charming men from the greatest generation. He loved his family, he respected his country and practiced his faith with great devotion. He led a life to be exemplified and one in accordance with God. It is with this knowledge that I pray you will find comfort at this time. He is truly with the Lord now and is quietly there to comfort you as he always was on earth. I personally will never forget the times I was priviledged to hear him speak of New York in his time and share the stories of his life. He was a fascinating person to someone from Wisconsin. I am happy to have had the opportunity to know him. I hope that your memories are warm and your faith is strong and you will find comfort from your fiends and family at this time. You all will be in my prayers and close to my heart. Sincerely, Wendy (Pieper) Weldon##imported-begin##Wendy Weldon##imported-end##
