

James W. Hoyt

November 30, 2012

Hoyt, James W., 59, of Bogota, died Friday in a workplace accident in Pearl River, NY, when a large crate of computer equipment fell and pinned him as he and others were trying to move the crate from one truck to another. Hoyt grew up in Kansas City and later moved to New Orleans, where he became a plant manager for Bunge Corp. He subsequently moved to Teaneck and became a Licensed Practical Nurse. He is survived by two brothers: Michael Hoyt, of Teaneck and Tim Hoyt of Overbrook, KS; as well as four sisters: Mary T. Durkin, of Chicago; Mary Jo Hoyt, of Maplewood; Anne Hoyt, of New York City and Sarah Hoyt of New York, NY. A memorial visiting will be Friday 10-11 AM with an 11 AM Memorial Mass at St. Anastasia's RC Church, Teaneck, NJ.

Tribute Wall

“ James W. Hoyt

October 08, 2023 at 09:59 PM

“ James W. Hoyt

October 08, 2023 at 06:27 PM

“ James W. Hoyt

August 30, 2022 at 02:48 PM

“ To the family of our pal, Jamie: Our hearts & prayers reach out to you all, trusting the Lord will comfort you with understanding to accept your profound loss. Several months ago, I met Jamie at our morning group in Bogota. He always greeted me with kind eyes & a warm smile. I wanted you all to know that he helped many in our group with his wisdom & compassion, as he was always willing to share his experience, strength & hope to serve those who suffered. He was taken too soon. Along with you, I too grieve his loss. God Bless, Mike
S###imported-begin###Mike S###imported-end##

December 09, 2012 at 12:21 PM

“ Dear Tim, Mike and family, Was shocked when I read the obit on Jamie, What a wonderful little brother he was to you. I have the fondest memories of the Hoyt family in the big house on the hill. I am sure you will miss him. My deepest sympathies to you and your sibs Tim. You and I were best buddies and I will always hold your friendship very special. Your Pal, Kevin###imported-begin###Kevin Jordan###imported-end##

December 06, 2012 at 10:13 AM

“ I am exttemely saddened to hear of the passing of Jamie. I knew and worked with Jamie for a number of years in Destrehan, La. My prayers are with Jamie, his family, and friends now and always.##imported-begin###William Fahnestock###imported-end##

December 05, 2012 at 09:22 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am one of James professors. He was such an outstanding student. Rode his bike to school and clinical daily and never ever complained. He also never missed a day of schoolrain sleet snow. My prayers and thoughts are with you and the entire family.##imported-begin##Tracy Provost##imported-end##

December 05, 2012 at 06:41 PM

“ Tim, I'm so sorry to hear of your brother's death. As someone who has lost several siblings, I really do know how you and your family feel and what you are going through. As you know, your mom and my mom were very good friends for years, and I remember your mom as a very sweet and kind person. Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. My brother, Terry, lives in New Hampshire with his family now and I have let him know of your brother's death. God bless all of you.##imported-begin##Donna (Holderby) Majors##imported-end##

December 05, 2012 at 12:41 PM

“ I'm very sorry to hear about Jamie's death. I went to Saint Louis gradeschool with him as my classmate. The environment in class was always very disciplined (NUN discipline). Jamie was always able to make everyone in class laugh in spite of the strictest rules and conditions. One Cool Dude!##imported-begin##Terry Holderby##imported-end##

December 05, 2012 at 12:07 PM

“ Dear Hoyt Family We are shocked & heartbroken to read about your brother Jamie. We are griev- ing along with you. We have special fond memor- ies of the Hoyt's and Holderby's Christmas carolling and spending several Christmas Eve's with your family. Please know that God's com- fort to you is our prayer. The Holderby Family##imported-begin##Mary Holderby-Rouyer##imported-end##

December 05, 2012 at 11:26 AM

“ Dear Family, My heartfelt sympathy and prayers go out to you all. I never knew any of you but I was friends with your Mom. When I read the obits this AM I thought it had to be one of Bernadette's sons. 59 is way too young, so I can imagine the pain you all must be feeling on your loss. Blessings and the Lord's peace be yours. Joni Dugan##imported-begin##Joni Dugan##imported-end##

December 05, 2012 at 07:52 AM