

Janet Triunfo-Woo

March 23, 2019

It is with great sadness Janet L. Woo (nee Triunfo), wife, mother, daughter, and sister, passed away peacefully on Saturday, March 23, 2019, at the age of 57. Janet will be forever remembered by her husband Ed, her precious daughter Liana, her parents, Rosa and the late Jose Triunfo, her sisters and brothers, Elizabeth (Franky), Edgar (Joseline), Joselito (FeLinda), and Rozsh (Allan). Janet will also be forever remembered by her numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, and dear friends. Janet immigrated to the United States when she was very young and worked very hard to make a better life for herself and for her family. When she discovered she had stage 4 cancer and was battling this disease for several years, she was still dedicated in her work to the end. Her inspired vision, effective communication, enthusiasm, competence, and the ability to delegate tasks paid off. Her diligence at New York Life awarded her to Corporate Vice President in I.T. project management, holding PMP and CSM certifications. Her personality, passion, and smile will be greatly missed. May she rest peacefully. Family and friends are invited to visit on Saturday, March 30th from 2-6PM and again on Sunday, March 31st, from 2-6PM at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 268 Kinderkamack Rd, Oradell, NJ. Funeral service from the funeral home on Monday, April 1st, 9:30Am, then to St. Joseph's Church, 300 Elm Street, Oradell, NJ, for a 10:30AM Mass of Christian Burial. Private cremation to follow.

“ I will always remember Janet's upbeat view of life and her smile. She was a great inspiration to me and was a work mate that I aspire to be like. We will sorely miss her at New York Life. She was one of a kind and will always be in our hearts. Rest peacefully Janet, knowing you lived a life of love, happiness, and determination. Until we meet again.

Love Always,

“ Janet was our classmate from elementary to high school. We lost touch and then reconnected about 10 years ago. Since then, we’ve kept our sisterhood strong, picking up from high school as though the years in between never existed. Here are some of our cherished moments with Janet, whose grace, kindness, generosity, love and wisdom will inspire and comfort us always. We love you, Jet! - IV Red SPCP ‘78

“ God has called home one of His fiercest Prayer Warriors.

Jet,

When we celebrated your birthday at our home a few years ago, we loved your idea of your family moving over here to Florida, for us to be nearer each other. It was a wonderful, memorable time with you, Liana, and the Red Sisters.

You were one of my fiercest Prayer Warriors; you were a spearhead of Margie's, as well. You buoyed us up and helped in our healing during our respective illnesses. Forever indebted to you, we are.

Though sadly, we won't be neighbors anymore in the foreseeable future, it is our fondest wish that we shall be, next-door neighbors with you in that Mansion someday.

Until then, dearest Sister, know that we love you and terribly miss you.

“ Janet was gift to all of us at New York Life. She brought joy and happiness to the workplace each and everyday. Janet was humble about her successes and achievements and was an example in both leadership and teamwork. A kind, generous and funny lady and beautiful person who will be missed. I feel blessed to have known her and I will never forget her. My deepest condolences to the Triunfo-Woo family.

“ Janet was a wonderfully smart, classy and insightful Woman with a great sense of humor. I had the very good fortune to work with Janet at Registry and then NYL. We were all very lucky to have her in our midst.

I express my heartfelt condolences to the Triunfo-Woo family. May the many memories of the happy times with Janet comfort you always.

With Sympathy,

“ Janet's high school classmates from Batch 1978 of St Paul College Paranaque Section IV-Red would like to make the following announcement:

Ninth day mass will be held on Sunday, March 31 at 5 p.m. at St. Andrew's Cathedral in Paranaque in the Philippines. Whoever wants to hear mass should stay at the Buensuceso Wing (that is the left wing if facing the altar).

Classmates and batchmates elsewhere in the Philippines and abroad are enjoined to offer masses in their respective parishes. Let us have it simultaneously at 5 p.m. on Sunday, March 31. Just inform the IV-Red batchmates or post here the parish where you are offering mass.

Fortieth day mass will be held on Wednesday, May 1 at 12 noon. Likely venue is the St. Paul Paranaque Chapel. We will invite other batchmates and friends of Janet to this mass. We will post announcements and reminders in the SPCP 78 and SPCP Batch 78 FB groups.

*Thank you very much.

“ First grade...I always wondered how you were always neat and clean, even when we posed for our photo around noontime. I'll never forget your “box of treasures” which we pored through like we were sharing our souls...a note from Mark Lester, TV guide and Beatnik magazines which came straight from your aunts in the states, mini-studios we traded...“Sentimental Lady” and “Silly Love Songs” we sang while scaling the grounds of SPCP...you owned the first ever skateboard I've ever seen...we doodled girls with huge eyes and tiny lips... arm in arm we walked the pathway of Caravelle Drive to your sunshine filled home...you asked me how after so many decades in between I could still recall the tiniest details of our girlhood memories - well, it is in how you've touched my life that all these memories have become my treasures. You are my soul sister, sharing a sisterhood whose bonds go beyond umbilical cords that not even time nor space could define...I love you so dearly my sweet Janet...I'll see you around..and in the meantime, I know you'll be watching over the Reds...
