

Janice Lynn Aversa

December 7, 1948 - August 31, 2025

Janice Lynn Aversa, a sweet and gentle soul, passed away peacefully on August 31, 2025, leaving behind cherished memories for all who knew and loved her.

Janice was predeceased by her parents, Elaine Aversa (née Zimmer) of Ridgefield, NJ, and Anthony Aversa of Tom's River, as well as her loving sister, Marie "Mickey" Casatelli, and brother-in-law, Robert (Bobby) Casatelli of Ridgefield, NJ.

She is survived by her nieces, Kristen Gugliotta of Jacksonville, Florida (formerly of New Jersey) and her husband, Corrado, and Kerri Murphy of Virginia (formerly of New Jersey) and her husband Brandon. Janice's joy also lives on through her adoring great-nieces, Luna, Lyla, and Sofia Rae, and her great-nephew, Michael.

Janice found happiness in life's simple pleasures. She loved to dance, listen to music—especially the voices of Barry Manilow and Lionel Richie. She loved meals from Burger King, and shared her deep affection for animals. Her kindness and innocence touched everyone she met.

In her later years, Janice lived in a group home in Lodi, NJ where she was cared for with love and compassion. She will be deeply missed by her family and all those who were fortunate enough to know her.

“ Thank you Janice, for allowing me the privilege of knowing you. You had a way of making work feel like home instead of just a job. I will always remember the kindness, warmth, laughs & joy you brought into each day. It was truly a pleasure to be able to care for you. You will be deeply missed. Love, Capri <3

“ To know Janice was to love Janice! You could always count on her to make you smile, even if you didn't feel like it with her random "eeks" or "mouse" all while scrunching her face to imitate one. The times when she would greet me, immediately followed by telling me how much she likes Burger King while displaying her most recently attained gift card which she called her "credit card", in hopes that I would make that trip to get her a plain whopper meal with a coke, of course.

Thankful to have been able to support Janice over the years. I will cherish every memory we shared. Glad she will now be reunited with her mom and sister whom she loved dearly and will have eternal peace. Love you Mouse!
