

Jeanne Harris

April 14, 1941 - July 11, 2023

Jeanne Muriel Harris was born April 14, 1941 to Ruth Douglas and Richard Douglas, in Englewood NJ. After graduating Dwight Morrow high school she married Lewis Harris. Jeanne went to nursing school where she became an LPN, and worked numerous jobs in and out of the healthcare field.

Jeanne was well known for making you feel loved and like family especially with her one of a kind nicknames. Sometimes they made sense, sometimes they didn't; but one thing for sure, you knew exactly who she was referring to or was calling for. Jeanne left a lasting impression on you with her distinct laugh and smile, and her famous "Douglas gap" that she loved to brag about. Jeanne loved to travel, she loved to learn about different cultures and she loved music and to sing and dance. When her mobility wasn't the best she would still find a way to groove, even if it was just with a head nod.

Jeanne is reunited with her parents Ruth Douglas and Richard Douglas; siblings Donald Douglas, Russell Lloyd, Charlotte Manning and her son Richard Harris. She is survived by her children Raymond Harris Sr., Kathleen Harris-Williams, Regina Harris-Lee. Grandchildren Lateese Williams, Monique Jackson, Raymond Harris Jr., Christina Harris, Nicole Harris, Oswald Welcome, Gregory Lee, and Angel Mckethan. As well as A host of God children, great-grand children, nieces and nephews, extended family and friends.
