“ My heart goes out to each member of the Vogel family. I also mourn the loss of Jennifer.

Admittedly, I had only known her a short time. I thank God for sending her into my life. I thank Jen for accepting me as a friend and allowing me into her life.

Each day i say a prayer for Jen, as well as i prayer to her, knowing she is praying for each of us here. I am also sure that she is tucked snugly and comfortably in the palm of Jesus' hand.

Just as assuredly, i know that he is protecting and keeping her safe, everyday in every way.

Lord, Again I Thank you for the GIFT of Jennifer.

I Miss her Much...I Love her More.

“ I am very sorry to hear about Jen's passing. She was a good friend of mine in High School, we were in the Colorguard together. We even nicknamed her "grassy ass" because she busted her butt during a routine once and we all had a good laugh about it. She was a very sweet girl and it breaks my heart that she was taken so young. May you all find comfort and peace.
