Mann, Joan Grace - formerly Joan Drewes – long time resident of River Edge with her beloved husband Bill - died on October 18th 2009. Joan was born at the Jersey City Medical Center on December 10, 1929 and lived in Hoboken until she was 5 years of age. She lived there until 1990, when she retired to their “Enchanted Cottage” in the Poconos until Bill’s death in April of 2007. Most recently she lived in Newtown, Pennsylvania. Joan was a wonderful daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother to all of her family. She was ever dedicated to their comfort, care, and gastronomic delights.
