“ All our love to Aunt Joan and her beautiful children and grandchildren. I wish we could be there today, and our hearts are with you. Uncle Jack will be missed. In light, Meri Robie-Craven, Michael Craven, and Sage, Rain, and Eve.

“ Dearest Cousin, so many years have passed since you and your brothers lived around the block with my Aunt Jeanne and Uncle Walter in the Heights. Your dad and mom often babysat me while you guys were out...maybe courting girls you were later to marry. Since then life happened (family, work, kids grandkids) but we kept in touch enough to know what each other was doing. That's why I can say that you lived a beautiful life. I am proud to be your kin. RIP.
