“ I was blessed to have such a caring and loving uncle. I will forever remember his smile that would light up a room. I feel lucky to have had Uncle Johnny in my life and my love and prayers go out to Aunt Letitia, John, Christopher, Susan and the rest of the family. You will be dearly missed but never forgotten. Rest in peace Uncle Johnny, there are a few people up there waiting to make a tee time with you.

Love,

“ Pineapple John was a great man. I remember him taking myself and Joe Burns to a NJ Nets game in Newark. It was a wonderful night. One of the most surprising things about the trip was him cranking a Bob Seger Cd in his truck. He will be missed dearly.

“ JC was truly one of a kind! I have so many memories, laughs, and stories that will live with me forever. The words kind, caring, and funny do not do him any justice. He was so much more than that. Mrs. C, John Jr., Chris, and Susan, thank you from the bottom of my heart for sharing him with us. He meant the world to me.

Love and prayers,
