

John W. Dilks

June 15, 2025

John “Jack” Dilks

Graduated from Culinary Institute of America and worked at numerous vocations including as a cook at the Metropolitan Club before retiring from the U.S. Postal Service International Exchange Office in Jersey City.

Jack was born in Jersey City in 1947 and lived in the Bronx before settling in Teaneck, New Jersey where he resided with his wife, Christine Schleicher, for 45 years and with whom he raised daughters Linda (spouse: George Lunsford) and Sara Ann.

He loved family vacations, building things with his hands, black & white movies, motorcycles and breakfast. He was a fun Dad and liked providing little surprises like an unannounced school pickup when his daughters expected to have to take the bus home. He was such a supportive Dad that on his day off he would go out on a small boat at dawn so his youngest had a diving buddy. He had a great smile and the patience to take a bus into Manhattan countless times in the 1990s, walk 51 blocks and then wait at store entrances while his older daughter would “shop” for hours without buying a thing.

Preceded in death by parents Ann (Bykowsky) and John and sisters Eileen and Sharon.
