“ John and I worked together at Holy Name and have been friends ever since. He talked so much about his family I feel like I knew them . Sorry for your loss Millie and thanks for telling him to call me back. I talked to him in early sept and was surprised when he had not called me back.

God Bless . Ps he loved the soccer games and that little French dog.

“ I believe the poem below by Joey Beighley reflects what John might be telling us right now:

Fill Not Your Heart

*Fill not your heart with pain and sorrow,
but remember me in every tomorrow.
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles.
I've only gone to rest a little while.*

*Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
my going has ceased my hurt and given me relief.*

So dry your eyes and remember me not as I am now, but as I used to be.

*Because I will remember you all and look on with a smile.
Understand in your hearts, I've only gone to rest for a while.*

*As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.*

You will always be in my heart... Your sister, Diane.

“ We mostly met with John during soccer games on the sideline, but that was enough to recognize that he was a special man and he is leaving a strong legacy behind. That big man had a kind heart, a warm smile that always made you feel important, and a gentle soul that brought people together in laughter. We miss you. RIP John, we were blessed to have met you.

Our deepest condolences to Millie, Jared, Alisha, Jenna and the Dublin family

“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of John. John and I worked together at Holy Name Hospital. We often shared stories about our children and their activities and I could see how proud he was of his family. While I only knew John through work I always found him to be a friendly, caring, and fun person who always found the time to talk about sports and, of course, his family. I will always remember that big smile and his friendly demeanor.

May he rest in peace.

Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ *John Dublin, you are missed. We used to work together at SUNY Downstate Medical Center. He was such a happy man. Every time we spoke it was delightful and comical. He made the work day at ease, and was a mentor and shared his experiences. He had wisdom. He always had a smile on his face. He was a family man loved his family. You will never be forgotten. May you rest in peace, and be an angel. Your soul lives forever and you truly left an unforgettable impression on us.
My deepest condolences.
Blessings
