“ I wish we could be there to say good bye, John. But Tommy is on dialysis and it is not in his best interest to be around people during this outbreak. Also, Louise is up there in age and should not be out at this time. Please know that we are praying for you and your family. I'm sure that you are in a better place now with lots of your family and friends. Love, Joanne (Monaco) and Thomas - and Louise Gentile.

“ *Uncle John as I look at your beautiful smile in all these pictures, It feels like yesterday we would stop over the house, and you would be in your rocking chair watching sports on TV. I miss that already, Aunt Claire, you're the most amazing woman, mother, wife, grandmother, & friend to so many. John, Robert, Michael, & Patty, are great children who loved each other so much. I love seeing all the grandchildren and I'm sure they're perfect like all of the Rennars. I miss you guys, I will keep everyone in my prayers as I know this is not the easiest time. Uncle John, may the celebration of your homegoing be as joyful as you were to everyone. God has taken you home and may you rejoice in your heavenly home. Our love to everyone at this time...
