“ I wish I could be there with all of you to celebrate the life of my amazing Uncle, and comfort all of you through this heartbreaking loss. I carry with me always so many great memories of Uncle John, I am so blessed to have an incredible family that always rallies together in heartbreak & joy. I thank God for lending me and incredible Uncle who was always patient with me, even while I was at my most annoying. I hate that we have to give him back to you God, but I know you know best & I also know that Nannie & Pop-pop are greeting him with open arms. I pray Lord, that since you did take him from us way too soon in our minds, could you please comfort us & bless Aunt Cheryl, Mommy, Bestest, Uncle Tom, Uncle Ike & all who loved him and give them the strength to carry on & find peace and understanding. Uncle John, I take great relief that you are no longer in pain, I take great comfort in knowing that you are reunited with nannie & pop-pop, and have great hope that one day when I am called home you will be there with open arms. Please watch over us, make sure we are doing right & if you have some pull maybe help our NY Rangers win a Stanley Cup like we hoped & talked about many times, and I will celebrate with a beer in your honor! I will miss you dearly, keep you in my heart always!

Love, Liza
